Volunteering is a great opportunity to increase confidence, as well as helping the community