What does the research say?

Haymovitz and researchers (2018) found that the level of communication among students was higher, better response to classwork, and an overall more positive school climate.

Yang and researchers (2018) found that lower student engagement is associated with a variety of negative outcomes, including delinquency, violence, teen pregnancy, substance abuse, and school dropout [without SEL].
How do we teach SEL?

Social/Self Awareness
Self Management
Relationship Skills
Responsible Decision Making
